It has already been documented that we have just seen the greatest transfer of wealth in human history, all in the name of COVID.

The “Great Reset” is not a new concept, but one that has been in the works for decades.

What has now empowered the Globalists to finally implement the “Great Reset” is COVID.

Now the Wall Street Billionaires and the Central Bankers who control the world’s financial system, through cleverly advertising just how “deadly” COVID allegedly is to produce panic and fear, have made their move to transfer the economies of the world to their control, and now the big push in their advertising is to convince the public that the “Great Reset” is next, and that it will solve all the world’s problems.

If you have not yet taken time to understand just how they are defining this “Great Reset,” and the “Fourth Industrial Age,” it is time you do so.

The next big event in this march towards the Great Reset is the U.S. political elections this week.

The “Great Reset” is coming. It cannot be stopped at this point.

The only question left is which version of the “Great Reset” will finally be implemented?

Fortunately, we are NOT without hope! The time has come for each one of us to contemplate our own personal “Great Reset.”
